Membership

The Roundtable will comprise permanent members and visiting members.

Invitations may also be extended to other relevant parties, such as consultants, subject matter experts, or others working in this space.

Nominations for new permanent membership can be made by any existing permanent member for consideration/discussion by the group. A final determination on membership will be made by the Chair.

Suggestions for inviting visiting members to attend a meeting can be made by any permanent member and are to be forwarded to the Secretariat.
